

Community Conversation

Remembering Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Ideology, Philosophy & Teaching

Join the conversation...

Dr. Bihmrao Ramji Ambedkar, popularly known as Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, was the principal architect of the Indian constitution and an emancipator of the poor and deprived. He was a crusader against the caste system in India, a valiant fighter for the cause of the down trodden, a great statesman and a National Leader of India. Dr. Babasaheb was a hope for the millions of depressed, oppressed and exploited people. His mission was to challenge the ideological foundation of graded system of caste hierarchy that denied equality, freedom and human dignity to minorities as well as women in Indian Society. He developed Indian constitution and tried to bring equality by the rule of law in India. Babasaheb Ambedkar left behind vast writings, teachings and valuable speeches that can never be forgotten. The goal of this conversation is to reflect on, and remember his teachings, ideas, vision, and his methods to bring change in ourselves and society.

Saturday, October 6, 2018
2:30–4:30pm

519 Kaneff Tower, York University

(4700 Keele Street, Toronto, ON)

Everyone is Welcome!

Register Here

Please join us after for refreshments and light appetizers while networking with community members!

Partners:

Canada-India Project for Research and Innovation (CIPRI), in partner with York's
Center Asian Research (YCAR) & Ambedkar
International Mission, Toronto

liberal arts & professional studies

