Land Acknowledgement

“York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the Huron-Wendat, and the Metis. It is now home to many Indigenous Peoples. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.”

Glossary: Learning the Language of York
Glossary

Faculty:

A large academic division of the University that offers programs in related disciplines. For example, the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies offers programs in the humanities, social sciences and professional programs.
Glossary

Program:
A prescribed set of courses and associated requirements that leads to a degree (e.g. Bachelor of Arts - BA) upon completion.

Major:
A primary concentration of courses taken in one subject area within a degree program.

Minor:
A secondary concentration of courses taken in one subject area within an Honours degree.
Glossary

Prerequisite:
A prerequisite course must be completed successfully before you can enroll in your requested course or program.

Co-requisite:
A co-requisite course must be taken simultaneously with another course.

Course Credit Exclusions:
A course credit exclusion is a course that is sufficiently similar to another course that credit will not be given to you twice if you take both courses.

Cross-listed Course:
Courses offered jointly by two or more departments Cross-listed courses may not be “double-counted” in order to fulfill degree requirements.
Glossary

Credits:

Each course has a number of credits attached to it. Generally, this reflects the minimum number of in-class hours spent in the course each term:

</table>

Note: Summer terms and associated hours per week will vary. Please see the Summer course timetable offerings for details.
Glossary

Transfer Credits:
Credits, or course equivalents, granted towards your York degree based on previous postsecondary studies.

Academic Calendar:
The Calendar is the University’s official reference document for all academic programs and requirements. You must follow the calendar for the year you entered the program.

Go to www.registrar.yorku.ca/program/glossary/ for a more complete glossary of terms.
Degree Types and Requirements
Degree Program Types

BACHELOR Degree: 90 credits
Usually completed over 3 years of full-time study

HONOURS BACHELOR Degree: 120 credits
Usually completed over 4 years of full-time study

Types of Honours Bachelor’s Degrees:

1. Honours............................Single Major
2. Specialized Honours.............More credits taken in single major
3. Honours Double Major......... Equal amount of credits in 2 majors
4. Honours Major/Minor..........Single major plus a single minor
Degree Requirements

1) General education credits
2) Major credits
3) Credits outside the major
4) Free choice credits
5) Upper level credits

Residency Requirement
GPA Requirements
General Education Requirements

For all degree types in LA&PS, students must take a minimum of 21 General Education credits from the approved list of LA&PS General Education comprised of:

• 6.00 credits in Natural Science (NATS)

• 9.00 credit approved General Education course in the Social Science or Humanities categories.

• 6.00 credit approved General Education course in the opposite category to the 9.00 credit course in Social Science or Humanities already taken.

*Ex. If your Humanities course is 9.00 credits your Social Science course should be 6.00 credits

For more information:
www.yorku.ca/laps/courses/gen_education.html
General Education Requirements

1. It is strongly recommended that students successfully complete their first General Education course within the first year and all General Education courses within the first two years of full-time study.

2. All General Education courses are offered at the 1st year, 1000-level.

3. All approved General Education courses will count as a General Education Credit; some may count as a major credit; none may count as both.

4. For students in programs where a General Education course is a required major course, a different General Education course will have to be taken to satisfy the General Education requirement (no double counting).
Major subject requirements

- Each degree program requires a primary area of concentration or Major.
- Each Major is comprised of mandatory credits. These credits can be found in the Academic Calendar: http://calendars.students.yorku.ca/
Credits Outside the Major & Free Choice

Credits Outside the Major:

• Credits Outside the Major are credits that are taken from another academic discipline.

Free Choice (elective):

• Credits that can be taken within or outside the major.

*Note: Beware of course credit exclusions & cross-listed courses
Course Levels

1000 level = 1\textsuperscript{st} year courses
2000 level = 2\textsuperscript{nd} year courses
3000 level = 3\textsuperscript{rd} year courses
4000 level = 4\textsuperscript{th} year courses

Please note:

The first digit of the course corresponds to the year level of the course.

Upper level courses (3000 and 4000 level) frequently have pre-requisites.
Upper Level Credits

BA (90 credits):
- At least 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level including 12 credits in the major.

BA Honours Degrees (120 credits):
- At least 36 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, including at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including 12 credits @ 4000 level in the major.
Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirements

BA (90 credits): maintain a “C”
• Students are expected to maintain a minimum grade point average of 4.0 (“C”) throughout their 90-credit degree program.

Honours BA (120 credits): maintain a “C+”
• Students are expected to maintain a minimum grade point average of 5.0 (“C+”) throughout their honours degree program.
Transfer Credits

Residency:

• If you are coming from another university or college, you may be entitled to transfer credits but there are restrictions on how many credits can be applied to a degree from York University.

• A minimum of 30 course credits, including at least half of your major/minor credits, must be taken at York University.

Welcome to the York Courses Web site

The York Courses Web site is designed to provide a central location where information can be obtained on thousands of courses that are being taught and have been taught in the past at York University.

This site contains information about the current course timetables and the current exam schedules once they have been released. Descriptions for courses offered in the past several years are available from the “Course Search By…” link at the bottom of the grey bar on the left.

Before enrolling: you should read through the Important Dates pages to ensure that you are fully aware of the various course add/drop and start/end dates, and the financial impact of enrolling in and dropping courses. Instructions for using the Registration and Enrolment Module (REM) and troubleshooting help is also available on the Enrolment and Registration Guide page. You are particularly encouraged to check out the Faculty-Specific Enrolment Reminders section. If you have further questions, you may also want to Ask a Student Services Expert.

For more information on your Faculty’s rules, policies and your program of study, please visit the Calendars Web site.

If a course is reserved...

The expression "Course Reserved" means that the seats have been set aside for a specific academic category of student.

If you are enrolling in courses which are appropriate to your year level, major and/or minor, you will have a better chance of meeting the restrictions.

Contact the Department that directly oversees the course to ask for permission to enrol.

Example: A student interested in AP/HUMA 1780 6.00 would call the HUMANITIES Department

You should know:

1. Your student number
2. The Course Code
3. The Section
4. The Tutorial Number (if applicable)

Note: Enrolment is based on course availability. You will be unable to enrol unless there is an available seat.

Where to Go for Help?

Academic Advising Services

Academic Advising Services at LA&PS provides students with the information and guidance they need to succeed in their academic careers. Advisors can help students make the right academic decisions by explaining policies and regulations as well as presenting different options available to them in their studies.

By speaking with an academic advisor, students can get answers to questions related to program selection, academic standing, petitions, grades and degree requirements. Students may be able to speak with an advisor on the spot, or they may need to book a future appointment. For questions related to a specific major, students should contact their major program office. Before you book an academic advising appointment, see these Frequently Asked Questions for the information you need.

A deposit of $300 must be paid by the deadline(s) provided above.

For example, if you begin enrolling into courses in March, then your deposit is due on April 10th. If you begin enrolling into courses on or after May 1st, then your deposit is due no later than 10 days after you’ve enrolled in your first course.
Between now and when classes start...

• Get familiar with the LAPS and Current Students Web sites including Important Dates and Deadlines.

• It’s a good idea to familiarize yourself with the campus; try to find all of your classrooms before classes start.

• Arrange for your YU Card (York I.D.) at the William Small Centre. Rm. 200.

• First day of classes: Monday May 4th, 2020.
